Thai Enquirer Summary

Political News

- The final day of a special session of parliament yesterday turned out to be quite dramatic one after a member of the opposition Pheu Thai Party slashed his wrist in protest against embattled Prime Minister General Prayut Chan-o-cha's rejection to resign.
 - ❖ Pheu Thai MP for Chiang Rai Wisarn Techatheerawat stunned the emergency parliament session yesterday evening when he took out a paring knife and cut his wrist 3 times in the middle of the parliamentary session. Wisarn took a drastic action at the end of a passionate plea for Gen Prayut to resign when he rolled up his sleeve and cut his wrist horizontally.
 - ❖ The Pheu Thai MP reportedly cut himself as he was making a statement that he could shed his blood, so that protesters would not have to.
 - ❖ Wisarn was then rushed out of Parliament for medical attention and had 9-stiches after which he returned to the parliament around the time the parliament was set to adjourn for the special session around 23:00 hrs.
 - ❖ Gen Prayut came out to say that he knew the real true behind-the-scenes story of the Pheu Thai MP's dramatic action, citing information from reporters. Saying that this action was undertaken to put the attention of the local and international media on the issues happening in Thailand.

- ❖ Following the incident, Sira Jenjaka, Phalang Pracharat Party MP for Bangkok, told the press in an interview that the Pheu Thai made a charade out of Parliament and that charges should be filed for bringing a weapon into the Parliament House.
- ❖ The shocking event was live on television covering the parliamentary hearings.

- Gen Prayut refused to step down for the good of the country and insisted that he does not hold on to power, telling protesters to treat him fairly as he does not deserve to be told to “get out” on a daily basis. He also insisted that Parliament is ready to take up the charter amendment process.
 - ❖ Gen Prayut in his closing speech said he was willing to compromise by
 - Looking at amending the constitution by amending the article 256 and to set up a Constitutional Drafting Committee (CDC)
 - Set up an independent committee from all 7-sides of the ongoing conflict

- And challenge to undertake a referendum on whether he should resign from the Prime Minister or not, and he would abide by the outcome of the referendum.
- Move Forward party, the successor to the now defunct Future Forward party, came out to say that outcome of the extra ordinary parliamentary meeting that ended yesterday was ‘useless’ in resolving the ongoing conflict in Thai society.
- One of the outcome was that key members of the government coalition parties and the opposition reportedly proceeded with talks on the setting up of a reconciliation committee to solve political conflict. It is said that a majority of government MPs supported the proposal while opposition MPs disagreed with it.
 - ❖ It is proposed that the committee should comprise members from the opposition parties, the coalition parties, the cabinet, the Senate, outsiders, security units, the police and the army.
 - ❖ The 3 whips, namely government, opposition and senate whips will hold another talk on charter amendments and the proposed formation of a national reconciliation committee which is unlikely to win support from the Opposition.
 - ❖ The Phalang Pracharat Party (PPPR) promised to push for a charter amendment bill proposed by civil group iLaw to Parliament in the 1st reading by the middle of November. The party wants the House to debate on 3 charter amendment bills proposed by the government and iLaw version at the same time, with the possibility to combine them into one.
 - ❖ Parliament President Chuan Leekpai said he had instructed a working panel to study the Democrat Party’s proposal.
 - ❖ He plans to ask representatives of political parties, the government and senators whether they wanted to wait for the charter amendment bill proposed by iLaw.

- ❖ If they decide not to wait, he said parliament would debate the six versions of charter amendment bills proposed by other parties when it reconvenes its regular sessions from November 1.
- ❖ If the representatives agree to wait for the iLaw's version of the bill, however, they will have to wait until the names of the signatories to the iLaw-proposed bill are verified, Mr Chuan said. That must be completed by November 12.
- Today the Constitutional Court is expected to rule on alleged media shareholding violations against 64 MPs including 32 government MPs and 32 opposition MPs today.
 - ❖ The list of 32 government MPs include:
 - 21 MPs from the Phalang Pracharat Party including party list MP Nataphol Teepsuwan, the Education Minister; Sira Jenjaka; Labour Minister Suchart Chomklin
 - 8 MPs from the Democrat Party including Chitpas Kridakorn, Sathit Pitudecha
 - 1 Chart Patthana MP which is its party leader Tewan Liptapanlop
 - 1 Ruam Phalang Prachachatthai MP MR Chatu Mongkol Sonakul
 - 1 Prachapiwat Party MP
 - ❖ As for 32 opposition MPs including 20 MPs from the now-dissolved Future Forward Party; 4 MPs from Pheu Thai; 4 Pheu Chart MPs and 3 MPs from the Seri Ruam Thai Party and 1 from the Prachachat Party.

- The Constitutional Court is also set to deliver its verdict on a petition filed months ago about how Gen. Prayut has been abusing his power by staying in the army allocated house even though he has retired from the position of Army Chief since 2014
 - ❖ The premier had claimed that he was staying there for security reasons but few people have believed the excuse made by Gen. Prayut
- Meanwhile pro-royalists gathered at Lumpini Park Bangkok from 17.00 yesterday to display loyalty to HM King in counter to growing criticism against the monarchy by anti-government rally-goers. More than 1,000 yellow-shirt Thai royalists demonstrated in support of HM the King yesterday, close to where thousands of people had marched a day earlier to demand reforms of the monarchy.
 - ❖ The rally was led by Dr Tul Siththisomwong, leader of the multi-coloured movement leader, and Taya Teepsuwan, the wife of Education Minister Nattaphol Teepsuwan.
 - ❖ Dr Tul gave a speech calling for unity and loyalty to the monarchy.
 - “Wherever you are, Move Forward Party, if you don’t stop your manipulation, we will come to you. The group will be chased out if they don’t stop defaming the monarchy,” Tul said.
 - ❖ He told the crowds to get ready for their plan to march to the Japanese Embassy and the French Embassy in Bangkok to petition them to probe into the exiled status of Thammasat University historian Somsak Jeamteerasakul (who lives in France) and Kyoto University associate professor Pavin Chachavalpongpun who are wanted for violations of Section 112 of the Criminal Code, the lese majeste law.

- They are active online, often writing critically about the government and the monarchy.
- ❖ The Thai Pakdee (Loyal Thai) group, led by former Democrat Party MP Warong Dechgitvigrom, announced to stage a rally of royalists at 09.00 hrs on October 31 to protest against the charter amendment bid.
- ❖ Meanwhile, a small group of Thai royalists rallied in front of the US Embassy on Wireless Road in Bangkok yesterday to protest against alleged US interference in Thailand's internal affairs.
- ❖ The group led by former entertainer Haruthai Muangboonsri held placards that read, "Mr. DeSombre, your Job in Hong Kong was good, but it doesn't work for Thailand" and "Please Stop Hybrid War in Thailand."
- ❖ She claimed that the current political conflict, which has snowballed into demands for sweeping reform of the monarchy and has seen attacks on the institution by anti-establishment protesters, stemmed from the spread of distorted information and fake news about the institution.

The gathering @ Lumpinee park yesterday

- Following the Election Commission (EC)'s decision to seek criminal charges against former Future Forward Party leader Thanathorn Juangroongruangkit and former party executives, former FFP member Chamnan Chanruang, now a Progressive Movement member, said the movement plans to file a counter-suit against individuals in the EC and the Constitutional Court for abuse of authority.
 - Former army chief and now deputy to the Lord Chamberlain Apirat Kongsompong has reportedly left the monkhood yesterday after returning from a pilgrimage trip in a temple in the country. Gen Apirat entered the monkhood on October 8 at the Hong Rattanaram Ratchaworawihan temple in Bangkok.
 - ❖ Gen Apirat is expected to return to take up his duty as deputy to the Lord Chamberlain after leaving the monkhood.
 - ❖ Former police chief Pol Gen Chakthip Chaijinda who ordained as a monk at the same temple has left his monkhood before Gen Apirat on October 18.
 - Celebrity and volunteer rescue worker Bin Bunluerit invited the public on @Bhin.fanclub to wear yellow and pink shirts to gather in front of the Temple of the Emerald Buddha at 16.00 hrs on November 1, 2020.

Economic News

- Asset World Corp Plc (AWC), a property arm owned by the Sirivadhanabhakdi family, is looking into establishing an opportunity fund with an initial investment budget of billions of baht to acquire cash-strapped hotels in Thailand, according to chief executive and president Wallapa Traisorat.

- ❖ Wallapa said the idea derived after the hotel and hospitality industries in the country was hard hit by the COVID-19 outbreak. AWC has been approached by both private firms and listed companies that offered more than 100 three and five-star hotels, mainly in Bangkok, Chon Buri and Phuket for sale since the virus hit the tourism sector. The property prices ranged from 100 million baht to more than 10 billion baht.
- ❖ The idea is that some private funds in both Asia and Europe have expressed interest in forming an opportunity fund with AWC. AWC will act as a fund manager to acquire hotels in Thailand, Wallapa said, currently and the company is looking to appoint domestic and overseas banks as its financial advisors to establish the fund in early 2021.
- Thosaphon Tansuput, Director-General of the Business Development Department, revealed that during the month of September 2020, there were 5,636 business operators applying for registration of new companies nationwide, an increase of 2 per cent when compared to the figures in August.
 - ❖ The data was far more depressing when compared to September 2019, as the new registration saw a decline of 19 per cent.
 - ❖ As for the registered capital of these companies, for the month of September 2020 the registered capital of these companies stood at 12.78 billion baht, a decline of 11 per cent from the previous month of August 2020 and a staggering 55 per cent decline year-on-year when compared to September 2019.
 - ❖ As for the number of businesses that shuttered their operations, it saw a 17 per cent increase month-on-month from the data seen in August 2020. During September 2020 a total of 1,568 companies shut their operations. These companies had registered capital of 8.48 billion baht, an increase of 57 per cent month-on-month.
 - ❖ The top 3 liquidated businesses were general building construction, real estate and restaurants.
 - ❖ For the first 9-months of this year, the decline in new business registration dipped by as much as 13 per cent with 50,178 new business registering. They had a total registered capital of 148.38 billion baht, 20 per cent decrease.

- ❖ For the year 2020 it is expected that new business registration will be around 60,000-64,000, down from 72,000 in the previous year because of COVID-19 impact. There is a lockdown and investors are starting to delay undertaking any kind of new business ventures.
- Some 300 employees of the Mass Communication Organisation of Thailand Plc (MCOT) have offered to take early retirement in exchange for a huge lump-sum pay, according to acting MCOT President Sirote Ratanamahatana.
 - ❖ The move came after the company announced the Mutual Separation Plan (MSP) for 2020. Of a total of about 1,400 employees of the financially-ailing MCOT, about 300 have offered to take early retirement at the end of this year so that they will be entitled to a maximum of 22 months of salary in severance pay, according to acting MCOT President Sirote Ratanamahatana.
 - ❖ MCOT television and radio stations have been operating at loss due to steeply reduced income over the last several years as people have largely turned to social media, Sirote said.
 - ❖ However, those who may have been employed for less than 10 years are not eligible to take early retirement, he said.
- Budget carrier Nok Air is ready to take the next procedural step with the Central Bankruptcy Court in order to proceed with its business rehabilitation plan in a 2nd hearing at 09.00 hrs on November 4 after its petition for rehabilitation proceedings went through the court in the 1st hearing yesterday without creditor filing any objection against the rehabilitation petition.
 - ❖ Nok Air reported a total debt amounting to 26,522,203,418 baht as of March 31, 2020. The company has nominated Grant Thornton Specialist Advisory Services

Co., Prinya Waiwatana; Tai Chong Yih; Kasemsant Weerakun; Wutthiphum Jurangkool; and Chavalit Uttasart as its rehabilitation planners.

- The Central Administrative Court yesterday turned down a State Railway of Thailand (SRT) request to nullify a huge compensation order in the “Hopewell Project”.
 - ❖ The SRT now lost hopes to nullify Hopewell’s 1990 registration to enable it to contest a Supreme Administrative Court order for the Transport Ministry and SRT to pay the company 25 billion baht in compensation for wrongfully terminating the contract.
- Registration for the half-half co-payment scheme is now full after 10 million people signed up for the scheme which opened since October 16, 2020. The scheme offers 30 billion baht cash to 10 million people to buy goods during the final quarter of the year.
- SCG Packaging (SCGP), the packaging arm of SCG, is expected to post a positive earnings outlook for the 3rd quarter 2020 financial statement.
 - ❖ SCGP is expected to post a net profit of over 2 billion baht in the 3rd quarter of 2020, up 30 per cent from the same period of last year and 5 per cent from the previous quarter as the third quarter is a high season for exporters and the consolidation of Fajar and Visy Packaging (Thailand) Limited, according to a source from the financial sector.
 - ❖ SCGP is to be included in the SET50 Index (fast-track inclusion) and SET100 from today after it submitted a filing for an initial public offering (IPO) to list on the Stock Exchange of Thailand (SET) on October 22, 2020, according to information on the SET.
- Property Perfect Plc plans to put assets up for sale that are worth a combined of more than 10 million baht to clear debt and boost equity, Chainid Adhyanasakul, the company’s chief executive officer, announced.

- ❖ The list of the assets include 2 plots on Ratchadaphisek Road and Ram Intra area worth a combined 5 billion baht. The company is in process of negotiating with 2 investors. Moreover, it has plans to sell a 45 per cent stake in Royal Orchid Sheraton Hotel or ROH. Currently, it is in negotiations with 3-4 local and foreign investors.
 - Global corporate confidence continues its slow but gradual improvement, yet the mood in Thailand remains very downbeat, according to the Worldcom Confidence Index (WCI).
 - ❖ The latest August survey showed Thailand executives' confidence level ranked 26th out of 31 countries surveyed, said the multinational public relations group. The country's index score was 16.45, compared with 22.15 for the US, which topped the table, followed by India, Britain, Canada and Australia. The global average was 18.45.
 - ❖ The Worldcom research project utilises a unique approach powered by artificial intelligence (AI) to track sentiment and engagement of C-Suite executives at 54,000 businesses around the world, based on views expressed in executives' public social media and blog posts.

General News

- Thailand logged 3 new COVID-19 cases in state quarantine facility over a 24-hour period yesterday, according to the Centre for Covid-19 Situation Administration (CCSA)'s report.
 - ❖ All 3 cases were asymptomatic and included a 53-year-old British engineer, who arrived from Qatar on October 21 and tested positive on October 24. He was in an alternative state quarantine hotel in Bangkok.

- ❖ The 2nd case was a 20-year-old US embassy employee, who had also arrived from Qatar on October 23 and tested positive on October 25 while quarantined in a Bangkok hotel.
- ❖ The 3rd case was a 19-year-old Sudanese medical student who had arrived from the United Arab Emirates on October 24 and tested positive on the same day while quarantined in a Bangkok hotel.
- ❖ The total number of confirmed cases in Thailand has risen to 3,746 (798 in state quarantine), 136 of whom are in hospital and 3,551 have recovered. The death toll remains unchanged at 59.
- Three major changes could be proposed by the Education Ministry's committee reviewing the rules governing student hairstyles that may offer more freedom of expression, particularly gender identity, the committee announced yesterday.
 - ❖ The committee will meet again on Nov 6 before forwarding them to Education Minister Nataphol Teepsuwan for approval, said Somkiat Tangkitvanich, president of the Thailand Development Research Institute (TDRI), in his capacity as chairman of the ministry's committee.
 - ❖ The first change recommends more participation by students, their parents and communities over school rules on hairstyles.
- Nakhon Ratchasima, currently hardest-hit by floods, is now bracing for the possible ravages of Typhoon Molave, expected to make landfall in Vietnam early today.
 - ❖ In a weather warning issued by the Meteorological Department yesterday, the typhoon was centred in the middle part of the South China Sea, about 675 kilometres from Vietnam, packing wind speeds of up to 155km per hour.

- ❖ The typhoon, however, is forecast to lose steam and turn into a tropical storm before passing over Vietnam into Thailand, where the storm is expected to trigger heavy rain across large areas of the country, especially in the lower parts of the Northeast, said the department.
