- ❖ Total Recovered until today - 29,611]
- ❖ Total current infection - 58,061

- Hospitals across the county are racing to increase the capacity of the Intensive Care Unit (ICU) as the number of cases rise.
 - ❖ Ratchavithi hospital in Bangkok is extending the ICU by converting the parking lot at the hospital to be an ICU ward.
 - ❖ Ramathibodi and Vachira hospitals are also among the others who have had to expand their ICU facilities by adding more beds
 - ❖ As of yesterday there were 1,151 critical cases
 - ❖ And 389 of these people are on ventilators.

- Another big news is the fact that the variant B1617 (so called variant 1st detected in India) was found in Thailand.
 - ❖ The variant was found in a Thai woman and 1 of her 3 sons who returned from Pakistan.
- The move has pushed the Ministry of Foreign Affairs also moved to suspend issuance of certificates of entry (COE) to all foreign travellers from 3 countries, namely Pakistan, Bangladesh and Nepal, effective from May 10.
 - ❖ However, the suspension of the issuance of COEs to foreigners is temporary, says Foreign Ministry Spokesman Thanee Saengrat.
 - ❖ The ministry stressed that Thai nationals, diplomats on mission in Thailand and their families and permanent residents traveling from these countries are still able to return to Thailand if they so wish.
- The government plans to allocate Covid-19 vaccines for people with mental disabilities starting at the end of May. The Department of Mental Health said it initially requesting about 10,000 doses of the vaccines from the Department of Disease Control to give to people with intellectual disabilities and their families.
- Meanwhile, more than half a million people in Bangkok are among 1.5 million Thais across the country who have registered to receive Covid-19 vaccines, according to the Ministry of Public Health.
 - ❖ The government is planning to launch a public relations campaign to convince more citizens, especially seniors, to book their appointment to receive Covid-19 vaccine shots as only 10 per cent of the state's target has been met.

❖ Ministry figures showed that 1,608,006 people have so far secured vaccination appointments, as of yesterday. According to the Public Health Ministry's Immunisation Centre, this accounts for only 10 per cent of 16 million people aged 60 and above and those with congenital illnesses.

❖ The list of places that has registered as of May 10 @ 09:00 hrs.

- Bangkok, followed by Lampang, Nonthaburi, Samut Prakarn, Chiang Mai, Chonburi, Songkla, Pathum Thani, Nakorn Ratchisma, Nakorn Srithamarat.

1	กรุงเทพฯ	516,282 คน	6	ชลบุรี	36,487 คน
2	ลำปาง	223,976 คน	7	สงขลา	35,272 คน
3	นนทบุรี	51,113 คน	8	ปทุมธานี	33,421 คน
4	สมุทรปราการ	44,962 คน	9	นครราชสีมา	33,398 คน
5	เชียงใหม่	43,869 คน	10	นครศรีธรรมราช	30,784 คน

- There has been a rising number of people who fear taking the vaccines and this is evident from the fact that out of the 16 million people eligible to register from May 1, only 1.6 million have so far registered. Out of this 16 million 11.7 million are above 60-years of age and the rest have 6 diseases that are eligible for the registration of the vaccine.

- The total number of inoculations in Thailand has been at 1.81 million as of yesterday.
 - ❖ Yesterday alone more than 66,174 doses were administered.
 - 22,774 doses were for the 1st dose.
 - 43,400 for the 2nd dose.

- It appears that Thailand has lost out to Singapore following BioNTech's announcement yesterday that it will open a new regional headquarter for Southeast Asia in Singapore.
 - ❖ The German biotechnology firm also announced that it will build a manufacturing facility in the island state to produce its messenger RNA (mRNA)-based vaccines.
 - ❖ The new site is expected to produce hundreds of million doses of mRNA-based vaccines each year, depending on the specific vaccine. The facility could be operational as early as 2023, BioNTech, which co-developed a vaccine for Covid-19 with U.S. pharmaceutical Pfizer.

Economic News

- Thailand's industries sentiment in April hit its lowest in 8 months after its biggest coronavirus outbreak struck, says the Federation of Thai Industries (FTI), calling on the government to borrow another 2 trillion baht to support the economy as its current 1 trillion baht borrowing plan is running out, citing the severity of the 3rd wave of the outbreak compared to the 1st and 2nd wave.
 - ❖ FTI's Supant Mongkolsuthree has come out to say that the FTI expects the Thai economy to see its worst in the 2nd quarter of this year as the 3rd wave of the Covid has caused economic activities to come to a standstill. His statement contradicts the FTI's earlier forecast that an economic recovery will start in June this year.
 - ❖ He said additional relief measures in the 3rd and 4th quarters are needed if the 3rd wave of the outbreak cannot be control quickly.
 - ❖ The FTI reported Thai industries sentiment index dropped to 84.3 last month from 87.3 in March.
 - ❖ The index for the next 3 months also fell, suggesting the outbreak is likely to drag on longer amid the slow rollout of vaccines, the FTI chairman said during the briefing.
 - "Overall sentiment tumbled as the outbreak has been very severe with no signs of subsiding," Supant said.
 - ❖ According to an FTI survey, 6,174 private firms including around 1 million employees said they want the vaccine distribution provided by the private sector in addition to the government's plan, to inoculate factory workers starting in June.

- ❖ The Joint Standing Committee on Commerce, Industry and Banking will hold a meeting on May 19 to find a conclusion on the vaccines rollout for the manufacturing sector, said Supant.

- Former energy minister Sontirat Sontijirawong has come out to suggest the government to adopt U.S. President Joe Biden’s economic relief plan to help small businesses manage through the pandemic.

- ❖ On his Facebook post, Sontirat posted ideas that could help Thai restaurant operators. Sonthirat suggested the government take after Biden’s relief measures for restaurant operators in a bid to revive the U.S. economy.

- ❖ The ex-energy minister pointed to Biden’s restaurant revitalisation fund to aid restaurants, bars, food trucks and other food businesses which he saw a loss of 2.3 million jobs.

- ❖ Under the Restaurant Revitalization Fund, restaurant owners can apply for grants through the U.S. government websites.

- Finance Minister Arkhom Termpittayapaisith is expected to submit a proposal to have Thai Airways International (THAI) reinstated as a state-owned enterprise under the category 3 for a cabinet consideration today, according to a source with the Ministry who cited this proposal as an important condition agreed upon by THAI's creditors.
 - ❖ Fears already rose that the airline's creditors which are financial institutions may not support loans of 25 billion baht for THAI if the cabinet fails to approve THAI's reinstatement and this will lead THAI to face bankruptcy.
 - ❖ Creditors and their official receiver will hold an online meeting to consider THAI's rehab plan tomorrow.
 - ❖ Government Savings Bank president Vitai Ratanakorn has come out to say that the bank is ready to approve THAI's rehab plan. He added that the airline has a plan to inject funds of 25 billion baht each to shareholders and creditors.
- Those who registered in the "Rao Chana" scheme and "Section 33 Rao Rak Kan" scheme will have to see if the cabinet will approve the Finance Ministry's proposals to expand funding in the schemes to 1,000 baht per week for 2 weeks at a cabinet meeting today.
 - ❖ Once approved, the ministry will transfer the 2000-baht Rao Chana money in 2 batches on May 20 and 27 via the the Pao Tang app.
 - ❖ An an additional 1,000 baht each week for 2 weeks under the Mor 33 Rao Rak Kan scheme will be on May 24 and 31, 2021.
- The Ministry of Finance expects the government's revenue collection to miss the collection target of 2.67 trillion baht as the 3rd wave of the outbreak has brought the economy to a standstill.

- ❖ The ministry expects the government revenue collection for the fiscal year 2021 to fall by more than 240 billion baht.
- ❖ Finance Minister Arkhom Termpittayapaisith is said to instruct all agencies under the Finance Ministry to improve the efficiency of revenue collection and report back to him in May.
- SET-listed Sri Trang Gloves (Thailand) Plc (STGT), a manufacturer and distributor of natural latex powdered and nitrile gloves, successfully listed its shares on Singapore Exchange (SGX) on Monday with the trading symbol "STG".
 - ❖ The company expects its shares to be available for trading on SGX from Friday onwards or after the blackout period as shareholders who transfer some of their shares to SGX are subject to a blackout period of 30 days before and one day after the announcement of the quarterly financial statements.
 - ❖ STGT listed its shares on the main board of SGX on Monday with no new shares issued or offered. The shares that were transferred from the Stock Exchange of Thailand (SET) to SGX are from portions held by major shareholders from the Sincharoenkul family.
- Ngern Tid Lor's initial public offering (IPO) garnered strong investor demand on its 1st day of trading under TIDLOR in the Stock Exchange of Thailand (SET) yesterday.
 - ❖ TIDLOR's share price rallied to close up 25.34 per cent above its initial public offering (IPO) price of 36.50 baht on the 1st day, after hitting 55.50 baht before closing at 45.75 baht.
 - Tidlor ended the day with total trading worth 33.22 billion with a trading volume of 677.83 million shares.

- Shares of Thai Union Group Plc (TU), rose more than 10 per cent yesterday after the company reported a net profit increase of more than 76 per cent year-on-year.
 - ❖ TU's 1.8 billion baht in net profit was partially due to the 'paper gain' from foreign exchange and other 1-time events that helped the company boost its bottom line.
 - All this helped the company rise 10.53 per cent yesterday to end at 16.80 baht a share.

Political News

- The drug trafficking case against the convicted drug smuggler Deputy Agriculture Minister, Capt. Thamanat Prompow which sees the Constitutional Court's ruling in his favour may land Prime Minister Gen Prayut Chan-o-cha, his deputy Gen Prawit Wongsuwan and the Phalang Pracharat Party in trouble as the House committee on corruption suppression and prevention is ready to pounce on them.
 - ❖ Pol Gen Sereepisuth Temeeyaves, Seri Ruam Thai leader and chairman of the House committee on corruption suppression and prevention, said he plans to file a petition with the National Anti-Corruption Commission (NACC) to take action against Prime Minister Gen Prayut and Capt Thamanat after the Constitutional Court gave a ruling that allowed Capt Thamanat to keep his MP and ministerial seat despite his prior drug trafficking conviction in Australia in 1993.
 - ❖ Sereepisuth said he needs to ask the NACC secretary-general to examine Thamanat's ethical conduct and whether the matter should be submitted to the Supreme Court's Criminal Division for Political Office-Holders for further consideration.

- ❖ Sereepisuth said Gen Prayut could have violated Section 157 of the Criminal Code for dereliction of duty as he gave the greenlight to Thamanat to hold a cabinet post despite his conviction. Sereepisuth went on to accuse Gen Prayut of trying to conceal Thamanat's past conviction which is considered dereliction of duty.
- ❖ He said his House committee is looking to take legal action against Thamanat in another drug-trafficking case that took place in 1993 in which the 30-year statute of limitations has yet to expire.
- ❖ Sereepisuth also threatened to seek the dissolution of the Phalang Pracharat Party (PPRP) if his House committee found Deputy Prime Minister Gen Prawit Wongsuwan, as the Phalang Pracharat Party leader has violated the standard of ethics for accepting Thamanat who was involved in a drug case under its membership.
- Convicted drug smuggler Deputy Agriculture Minister Thamanat Prompow has reversed his decision that he would file a defamation charge against Move Forward Party secretary-general Chaitawat Tulathon over the latter's Facebook post with a caption "bandit saves bandit" that described a photo of Prime Minister Gen Prayut Chan-o-cha taken with Capt Thamanat.
- ❖ According to his original plan, Capt Thamanat has assigned his lawyer to file a complaint with Nang Loeng police station at 11.00 hrs today against Chaitawat. However, a media report said the overseas convicted minister decided to scrap his plan.

- The Kla (Bold) Party yesterday called for the government to scrap Thai citizens' rights to receive free treatments for Covid-19 when they refused to be vaccinated.

❖ In his Facebook comment on the management of the government's vaccine distribution plan and ways to fight the outbreak, Kla Party deputy leader Worawoot Ounjai wrote, "Once ready to administer Covid-19 vaccines, the government should announce that those who refused to be vaccinated will lose their rights to free Covid-19 treatment. The government should also pay 20,000 baht for those who suffer side-effects from Covid-19 vaccines and a 1-million-baht compensation for deaths linked to the vaccine."

- Meanwhile, Pheu Pandin Party leader Pramuan Aimpia issued a statement demanding the Centre for Covid-19 Situation Administration (CCSA) to explain side effects from AstraZeneca and Sinovac vaccines, citing that reports of adverse reactions from the 2 vaccines have caused an alarm among the general public.

- ❖ Pramuan wants the government to allow people to choose Covid-19 vaccine options and stop granting itself a monopoly on vaccine production.
- Today, the Criminal Court is set to conduct a hearing into bail requests for detained Ratsadon protest co-leader Parit “Penguin” Chiwarak, Panupong “Mike Rayong” Jadnok and Chai-amorn “Ammy the Bottom Blues” Kaewwiboonpan.
 - ❖ Prior to the court’s hearing, anti-government protesters led the People Go Network and allies held a rally and seminar at Pathumwan intersection yesterday as a tribute to the detained pro-democracy activists and called for their releases.
 - ❖ The political demonstration went peacefully before protesters dispersed at 19.30 hrs.

- Meanwhile, another group of protesters comprising current and former Thammasat University students gathered in front of the Faculty of Political the detained student activists.
 - ❖ The group carried out a symbolic rally by standing against the detention of student activists for 1.12 hours and turning the torch lights of their smart phones on to shine light on the Thai justice system. Protesters also tied white ribbons around their ankle in protest against the release of political activists but are still required to wear ankle bracelets for tracking purposes.

- ❖ Another report said the Facebook group “Let’s Move Countries” created on May 1 and changed name to “Let’s move your bum” has now garnered 1,000,674 followers.
